Council Chambers and Online

1. Call to Order

2. Roll Call

3. Land Acknowledgment

We, the City of Lacey, are on the ancestral land of the Tribal People of the Treaty of Medicine Creek, including the Nisqually Indian Tribe and Squaxin Island Tribe. We acknowledge, and remember those Tribal People not recognized today who were absorbed or relocated into other tribes for survival. We recognize the ancestors and their descendants who are still here. We recognize and respect the Tribal People of the Treaty of Medicine Creek as the traditional stewards of this land since time immemorial and their role today in taking care of these lands in perpetuity. We recognize and have the responsibility to call attention to the histories of dispossession, forced removal, and abridged treaty rights that allowed our nation, state, and city to develop as they have today. We recommend that community members read the Medicine Creek Treaty of 1854.

FISCAL IMPACT: None

PRIOR REVIEW: Lacey City Council Worksession- August 27, 2024

BACKGROUND:

The City of Lacey (City) received five applications for the 2025 Washington Center Free Day.

Applicant Presentations

The Lacey City Council (Council) reviewed the applications at the August 27, 2024, work session (Attachment 1). Council directed staff to schedule the applicants for a worksession to provide presentations focusing on the following:

- Broad background of their organization
- Purpose of their event
- How their organization or event relates to the City of Lacey

Applicants have been scheduled to provide a 5-minute presentation regarding their application to Council at the September 24, 2024, Council Meeting.

The Applicants will present in the following order:

1. Olympia Chorus
2. Olympia Waldorf School
3. 4 the Love Foundation
4. Boys & Girls Clubs of Thurston County
5. Capital City Chorus of Olympia

Previous Applicants

Based on Council request staff has provided a list of previous awards for the Washington Center for the Performing Arts Free Day dating back to 1992.
(Attachment 2).

Next Steps: Upon review of applicant presentations, the City Council could consider one of the following options:

- Option 1: Move to select one applicant as the recipient of the Washington Center for Performing Arts Free Day.
- Option 2: Do not select an applicant as the recipient of the Washington Center for Performing Arts Free Day.
